CAMP:GUILFORD'S SUMMER READING PROGRAM

Soccer At The Library, July 11-15, 9-12:30, grades 5-8.

Healthy minds begin with healthy bodies. The Camp schedule for this year begins with Peter and Erin and their crew for a rousing week of Soccer.

Stream Story, July 25-29, 9-12:30, grades 2-5. Stream Story is Stage and Stream for younger ones, where we practice the elements of improv and explore the inspiration found in nature!

This new camp experience will be led by Maia Gilmour, who created Stage and Stream for older kids six years ago.

Stage & Stream, August 1-12, 9-3:30, grades 5-8. Stage and Stream expands for more theatre, improvisation, and forest exploration; even more reading, writing and learning! Now thanks to the 2022 Humanities Camp Grant through Vermont Humanities Council, we are able to offer two weeks of full-day camp for children who've completed 5th-8th grades.

Nature Stories, August 15-19, 9-12:30, grades

K-3. Join GCS pre-k teacher Emma Hallowell for a week of play, exploration, and discovery. We'll explore nature stories, play games, and have fun being in nature. Emma has taught at GCS for 10 years, and helped start the nature-based pre-k program five years ago. She loves spending time outside with little people, nurturing learning through play. Fully enrolled, waiting list only.

Each camp day begins and ends at the library. Breakfast and healthy snack are provided. There is no charge for any Guilford child, but a minimal charge will be made for a child who lives out of town. Transportation will be provided by Library trustees for any child who needs it in order to attend. Call 802-257-4603 or email staff@guilfordfreelibraryvt.org for more information.

Talk About Books: PERSUASION

Enjoy Austen's writing, humour and wit, as we talk about Jane Austen's final finished work, widely regarded as the most moving. It is the story of a second chance.

The story concerns Anne Elliot, a young Englishwoman of twenty-seven years, who was "persuaded" by her friends and family to end her engagement. Anne and Captain Wentworth, both single and unattached, meet again after a seven-year separation, setting the scene for many humorous encounters as well as a second, well-considered chance at love and marriage for Anne in her second "bloom". Borrow the book from the library.
